

Detach Team

Responsible to: Detach Team Leader

Aims: To make contact with the youth on site who are not partaking in the full event programme, particularly the main meetings. To hang out and build relationships with them, sensitively share the gospel and encourage them into attending the programme.

Responsibilities:

To attend all team meetings during the event.

Be familiar with the programme of the days events.

Be familiar with the villages of youth not attending the programme, recognize these delegates and know their favoured hangouts.

Keep your team leader informed of your whereabouts when on duty and report progress / incidents to them.

Any matter for discipline (breaking site rules) must be referred to your team leader.

On a one to one basis, always minister and approach delegates of the same sex.

Report all disclosures of past and present abuse of any nature to your team leader. Do not promise confidentiality.

Work with all venue teams, village hosts and stewards where necessary.

Conditions:

Soul Survivor has outlined certain Values and Principles for ministry, which should be read and understood. While on a team at Soul Survivor you are expected to accept and work out of these values at all times.

You should attend all team meetings during the event

There will be a team meeting on your day of arrival which you MUST attend. Successful applicants will be sent details of where and when this meeting will take place at a later date.

Team must be 18+

Please submit a registration form and include a Team Application form with your registration.

Reference

The referee you nominate on your application must not be related to you in any way. If the minister of your church is a relation, please use another leader from your church and specify their job role.

Application Procedure

Once we have received your application we will be contacting your minister or Church leader for a reference. We will also be police-checking all applications. We will notify you as soon as possible to inform you as to whether your application has been successful. Once you have been accepted onto the team we will send you a letter confirming this and detailing other important information.

We look forward to receiving your application.
